

When a Cup is Not a Cup

Drs. Foster & Smith Educational Staff

Many pet owners try to be careful about how much they feed their pet. They attempt to follow the feeding suggestion on the pet food bag or what has been recommended by their veterinarian. Unfortunately, when measuring the food, the proper measuring device is not always used. A standard measuring cup actually contains 8 ounces. Take the time now to check how much your pet food "cup" really holds.

